

Lyme Regis ART SOCIETY

Newsletter No. 3

Welcome to the third Newsletter to introduce you to your Committee for 2023 and some dates for your diaries.

We have several members who have put their hand up and come on to the Committee to join us and help to run your society and we thought you might like to put names to faces, so that you can recognise them at the Demos and out and about.

We also have Jacquie Coppard who writes up the report for each Demo

You then receive an email from our Secretary each time and are able to read the Demo report on the Lyme Regis Art Society website. A good reminder of the materials used, tips & tricks and the final picture.

We are very fortunate that a lovely group of ladies are organising the very welcome cup of tea for each Demo, and washing up. It just seems to happen!
Thank you.

Coming up is our Annual Exhibition in the Malthouse at the Lyme Regis Town Mill from Saturday 26th May until 8th June. So ... get those paints out - sort out the frames - enter your art works and be prepared to steward.

Handing in will be on Thursday evening, hanging the art works on Friday and opening to the public on the Saturday. There will be a celebration and announcing the winners on Saturday evening at 6.00pm to which you and your friends are warmly invited.

Date for your diary: The RNLI fund raising Art Exhibition will be on Sat 22nd and Sun 23rd July down on the Marine Parade. Please think about how you could help and let Mary Noon know and brilliant ideas.

The new season of Demonstrations will start on Tuesday 19th September 2023 with a Demonstration by Julie Oldfield.

Your subscription for the new season will be £30 (that equates to just £2.50 for each Demo!) - details for how to renew will be sent to you by email in August.

Finally, how fortunate we are to have so many talented people stepping up and continuing to make LRAS such a vibrant society. We hope you continue to enjoy all the different artists at the Demonstrations. If you have any suggestions for a Demonstrator or any ideas - do speak to one of the Committee.
